Prestbury Tennis Club (PTC)

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") and UK data protection laws, the controller is Prestbury Tennis Club of Bollin Grove, Prestbury, Cheshire, SK10 4JJ

About this document

This privacy policy sets out the way we process your personal data. We have created this privacy policy to make sure you are aware of how we use your data as a member of Prestbury Tennis Club (PTC).

How we collect your information

We may collect your personal data in a few limited ways:-

- Directly from you, when you fill in an application for membership, when you make enquiries on our website, or when you interact with us during your time as a member in various other ways (for example, where you enter a competition, renew your membership, sign up for a courses or lessons).
- From someone else who has applied for membership on your behalf (for example a family member or your tennis coach who has provided us with your contact details for that purpose).
- From the LTA (for example, where the LTA passes on your details to us regarding query you have raised about PTC).

The types of information we collect

We may collect the following types of personal data about you:

- Contact and communications information, including your contact details (including email address(es), telephone numbers and postal address(es) and records of communications and interactions we have had with you).
- Financial information, where PTC has made a bank transfer to you.
- We may also collect data about your health or medical conditions, where you have volunteered this, for example so that we can cater for you when you attend a PTC social event or a course/camp.

How we use personal data

Personal data provided to us will be used for the purposes set out below, where relevant, in accordance with any preferences you express.

More generally, we will use your personal data for the following purposes:-

- Administration of your PTC membership, including:-
 - informing you about PTC facilities and activities.
 - taking payment of membership fees.
- Research and statistical analysis about who is playing tennis at PTC.
- Storing your details on the software platform we use for our PTC member management database (where this is necessary for our legitimate interests for example in increasing use of PTC's facilities and participation in the game generally).
- Promoting PTC and promoting relevant goods and services of third parties (for example, equipment suppliers, operators of coaching courses, and organisers of tennis events) where we think this will be of interest to you.

Your marketing preferences

We will respect your wishes in respect of what type of communications you want to receive from us and how you want to receive them. There are some communications, however, that we need to send you regardless of your marketing preferences in order for us to fulfil our obligations to you as a member of PTC. Examples of these essential service communications are:

- Membership related mailings such as your membership renewal reminder, notices of formal meetings and information about PTC closures and holiday opening hours.

You are in control of how we communicate with you. You can update your choices and/or your contact details by contacting us using the link provided at the end of PTC emails, or alternatively at:

Post: Prestbury Tennis Club, Bollin Grove, Prestbury, SK10 4JJ

Sharing your information with others

We do not sell or share your personal data for other organisations to use other than as set out below.

Personal data collected and processed by us may be shared with the following third parties, where necessary:

- Our employees and volunteers, for the purposes of administering your membership and giving you access to the membership benefits to which you are entitled.

- Our coaches (Star Tennis), to provide you with coaching opportunities to improve your game and general fitness.

How long your information is kept

We keep your personal data only for as long as necessary for each purpose we use it. For most membership data, this means we retain it for so long as you have a valid club membership and for a period of six years after your last interaction with us (for accounting, tax reporting and record-keeping purposes).

Your rights

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it. You can also withdraw your consent, where this is the basis for our processing your data (without affecting the lawfulness of our previous processing based on consent).
- Request the transfer of your personal data to another party.

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply.
